Gentlemen:

In compliance with the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act of 1980, the United States Navy has conducted an Initial Assessment Study (IAS) on Navy property within Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, to identify and assess sites posing a potential threat to human health or to the environment due to contamination from past hazardous materials operations. The report on the Navy facilities in the U.S. Virgin Islands is included in the study for the U.S. Naval Station Roosevelt Roads, Puerto Rico, attached herewith as enclosure (1).

For additional information please call the office of my Staff Civil Engineer, at telephone (809) 865-2020, extensions 4204 or 4083.

Sincerely,

J. F. M[illegible]
Acting
