ABOUT TOWN

3-D printing demo at library on Saturday

A demonstration on 3-D printing will be held on Saturday, Nov. 14, from 3 to 5 p.m. at the library. Jamestown resident Steve Heath will lead the demonstration. Heath is the owner of FabNewport, a fabrication laboratory that serves Newport County. The small-scale community workshop allows users to apply powerful technology and materials to create digital modeling. The demonstration is free and open to the public. Call the library at 423-7280 to learn more.

Free piano recital next week at St. Matthew's

The Jamestown Community Piano Association will sponsor its next recital on Sunday, Nov. 22, at 2 p.m. at St. Matthew's Episcopal Church. The featured pianist will be Michael Campbell, a Westerly resident who is the retired professor emeritus of music at Western Illinois University. He has performed abroad in Canada and Malaysia. Campbell's repertoire spans three centuries, but he focuses on 20th century American composers, including Roger Sessions and Art Tatum. The concert is free and open to the public. Donations are accepted. Call Janet Grant at 423-0515 to learn more.

Members show goes on display Thursday

The Jamestown Arts Center will host the opening reception for its annual members show on Thursday, Nov. 12, from 6 to 8 p.m. Jurors will be gallery owner Lindsey Stapleton and curator Uli Brahmst. The artist who wins best in show will be awarded a solo exhibit at next year's show. 2014 winner Didi Suydam will have a small gallery on display. Following the opening, gallery hours are Wednesdays though Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. for the next three weeks.

Sushi documentary Tuesday afternoon

Featured in next week's Tuesday matinee series will be "Jiro Dreams of Sushi," an 81-minute documentary about a Japanese restaurateur who is considered to be the world's greatest sushi chef. Despite the restaurant's humble appearance in a Tokyo subway station, Sukiyabashi Jiro has been awarded three stars by the prestigious Michelin Guide. People around the world book reservations months in advance to eat at the 10-seat sushi bar. The movie will begin at 1:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 17, in the library's large meeting room. The senior center is co-sponsoring the series. Audience members can bring their own snacks and water. Transportation is available by calling Ellen Vietri at 423-2761.

Dedication ceremony planned at Fort Getty

The town will host a dedication ceremony at the new story circle in Fort Getty on Saturday, Nov. 21, at 4 p.m. The site will be dedicated to Linda Roach. The memorial circle will be used for storytelling and building fires. The ceremony will include storyteller Len Cabral, a master storyteller from North Providence who is best known for his enthusiastic hand gestures and character voices. All members of the community are invited.
