DiPalma receives legislative award

WARWICK — Sen. Louis P. DiPalma, D-Middletown, was honored on June 19 with the Legislative Leader Award by the Rhode Island Parent Information Network (RIPIN) at its annual breakfast at the Crowne Plaza hotel.

The award is given to a state legislator who has shown leadership and commitment to activities that further policies for children, families and individuals with disabilities in Rhode Island.

"I am honored to receive this recognition from RIPIN. They are an outstanding organization that truly does amazing and vital work for the children, families and disabled of the state," DiPalma said in a prepared statement. "And I can promise them and all those they serve that I will continue to walk into the Statehouse every single day and advocate for those that deserve a voice at the Statehouse. I ran for elected office to help those that are most in need and I will continue to do so even after I leave the legislature."

NEWPORT: AN ENVIRONMENTAL LEADER

Jacob Kalil, center, a recent graduate of the Paul W. Crowley East Bay Met School in Newport, was presented with the 2015 Environmental Leadership Award by the Aquidneck Land Trust. Kalil was given a $1,000 merit award for his commitment and dedication to environmental issues on Aquidneck Island.

Beginning Saturday, July 4
Men in Mourning: Grief Support for Men
8:30 - 9:30 am
Every Other Saturday

Men who are grieving often report feeling "lonely, lost and numb." This is a time when independence is less valuable than camaraderie. Please join Steve Rapsa for this peer led informal hour just for men - for conversation, for bagels & coffee, for friendship during hardship. You are not alone!
Every Other Saturday - July 4 & 18, August 1, 15, 29

Beginning Tuesday, July 9
Building Bridges: 6-Week Grief Support Group
4:30 - 6:00 pm
Six Tuesdays

Grief is hard. Confusion and strong emotions can make a person feel out of step with the rest of the world. This 6-week support group, co-sponsored with Hospice at Visiting Nurse Services of Newport and Bristol Counties allows participants to share stories and strategies for coping with others who truly understand. Space is limited.

Every Monday
Open Door: Ongoing Grief Support
10:00 am - 12 noon

Drop in support for those who are grieving. Stop by Hambly Brick House anytime between 10am and 12 noon to share a cup of coffee or tea. Hosted by Lark d'Helen or Barbara Carnes.

Community Connection events are free of charge and held at Hambly Brick House, 30 Red Cross, Newport, unless otherwise noted.
