Brady is back and you're gonna be in trouble. Sure, the Patriots QB never really left, but now that 'Deflategate' is in the rearview mirror, he can concentrate on doing what he does best — winning football games.

Steelers quarterback Ben Roethlisberger threw for nearly 5,000 yards last season, and the Patriots' secondary isn't what it was in 2014. Even without running back Le'Veon Bell, Pittsburgh spoils banner night.

After the 'Deflategate' saga and the recent reshaping of past indiscretions, the Patriots finally get to vent their frustrations on an opponent — old rival Pittsburgh. Nobody could beat New England on this particular night.

Without starting running back Le'Veon Bell, the Steelers will have a tough time. With a fired-up Tom Brady, the Patriots won't. No matter who's lined up opposite them, nobody is stopping the Patriots in their home opener.

be on the game on the field and the festivities celebrating the Patriots' Super Bowl championship," league spokesman Brian McCarthy said. "Goodell has attended the other kickoff games, but does not have a function there that requires him to attend."

confident — even though the Steelers are just 2-7 against Brady during his career and have never beaten him on the road, losing the three games in Foxboro by an average of 20.3 points. "You don't have to cover people if you get to the quarterback," Butler said. "Can we get to Brady before he throws the ball? We'll see. We can't let him throw where he wants to."

IN A RUSH: The Steelers promoted longtime linebackers coach Keith Butler to defensive coordinator in January and tasked him with restoring some bite to a pass rush that has been largely benign the last four years.

SUPER SUBS?: Pittsburgh will open the season without three vital pieces of an offense that ranked second in the league a year ago.

The results during the preseason were uneven at best, though Butler remains

All-Pro running back Le'Veon Bell is suspended for the first two games, and wide receiver Martavis Bryant is out four weeks for running afoul of league policy.

SCHOOL ROUNDUP

BOYS SOCCER

Middletown 2, Coventry 0

Two second-half goals from senior Kobi Massaro was the difference as Middletown shut out Coventry 2-0 on Wednesday night at Gaudet Middle School.

Massaro, normally a center midfielder, has played on the back line this season, and against the Knotty Oakers, he scored twice — in a span of 2 minutes, 40 seconds — as a striker.

"He's a well-rounded player, and we use him where we think we can get the most out of him," Islanders coach Luis Oliveira said. "He's definitely a good player."

Middletown had been playing a flat-back defensive alignment, but on Wednesday, it went with a diamond formation, with Aodhan Barry and Tom Corey on the wings, Zac Chamberlin at stopper and Tim Powell at sweeper.

"The defense did a nice job of making their shots come from far out," Oliveira said.

Josh Ferreira finished with 10 saves for Middletown, which improved to 1-1-1 in Division II.

GIRLS SOCCER

Rogers 2, Central Falls 1

Scoring twice in the first half, Rogers held off a late charge from Central Falls and posted a 2-1 victory on Wednesday afternoon in Newport.

Elizabeth Murphy and Ayla Newsome scored goals for the Vikings, and Kalie Butler had an assist. It was the first varsity goal for Newsome, who put Rogers ahead 2-0.

Edna Hernandez cut the deficit in half for Central Falls, but the Vikings defense, led by Aliyah Jones, Caeli Palmer and Michaela Mathews, and goaltender Julianna DiMeglio, who finished with 19 saves, kept the Warriors at bay for the remainder of the game.

GIRLS VOLLEYBALL

Middletown 3, St. Raphael 0

A number of players saw action for Middletown on Wednesday night as the Islanders cruised past visiting St. Raphael 3-0 at Gaudet Middle School.

"We got the bench in and saw everyone play, playing with different lineups," said Middletown coach Leah Rosin-Pritchard, whose team won by the scores of 25-15, 25-15 and 25-22.

Tabitha Trigler recorded five aces, while Ashlyn Mahoney had four. Elise Rosenthal paced the offense with 12 kills, Renee Lewis racked up 11 assists and Kara Sylvia had three digs.

Lincoln 3, Tiverton 0

Playing in its home opener Wednesday, Tiverton had a tough time against Lincoln and lost 3-0 by the scores of 25-14, 25-10 and 25-12.

Ashley Drolet, a senior, finished with six digs, while junior Katelyn Farias finished with two service aces and one kill.

"Ashley Drolet played a great three games and hustled the whole night, picking up the passes and saving the balls that were passed way off target," Tigers coach Kerri Russo said.

GIRLS TENNIS

Rogers 7, Central 0

In a match played at Classical High School in Providence, Rogers didn't drop a set en route to a 7-0 blanking of Central on Wednesday.

Kaitlin McGuire at No. 1 and Dori Cawley at No. 2 each were tested in their singles matches, but they prevailed. McGuire beat Leydi Hernandez 6-2, 7-5, while Cawley trumped Jaislene Vinas 6-3, 7-5.

Bridget Murphy won 6-0, 6-0 at No. 3 singles, and Carol Eliasson posted a 6-1, 6-3 victory at No. 4.

In doubles, the tandems of Paige Montgomery and Emily Tollefont at No. 1, Meg Turner and Faye Callahan at No. 2 and Katie Tejada and Aria Winters at No. 3 dropped a combined nine games in the three matches.

J.V. BOYS SOCCER

Coventry 3, Middletown 2

Middletown coach Tom Conrad said his players got a little "too comfortable" on Wednesday after building a two-goal edge over visiting Coventry at Gaudet Middle School.

The Knotty Oakers dominated the second half and left town with a 3-2 victory. Jason Nguyen and Payton Lee had goals for the Islanders, while Kyle Smith and Michael Martin recorded assists. Liam Clancey finished with five saves in goal.

Portsmouth 1, Chariho 1

Nolan O'Brien's unassisted goal helped Portsmouth register a 1-1 draw against host Chariho on Tuesday.

Goalkeepers Christian Schenck and Nathaniel Davies each had three saves and Domenic Taylor, Ben Roy, Nick Drennon and Isaiah Kittell played well.

J.V. GIRLS SOCCER

Middletown 6, Cranston East 0

Emma Rochefort had three goals and assisted on two others, lifting Middletown to a 6-0 victory over Cranston East on Tuesday in Middletown.

Taylor Patterson, Maggie Bennett and Natalie Huntoon each scored a goal.

J.V. GIRLS VOLLEYBALL

Tiverton 2, Lincoln 0

Amber Pavao and Kaytlyn Santos played well as Tiverton blanked Lincoln 2-0 on Wednesday in Tiverton.

off Portsmouth miscues as the Vikings sputtered offensively.

"Our goal for every game is to be more offensive than we were the last game," Glancy said. "We definitely have some girls that are athletic and are coming into their own. They're getting a lot better through practices and playing, so that's pretty exciting to watch. We've just got to coax it out of them because they all have it."

Portsmouth scored the first three points of the second set and couldn't be stopped as it surged to a 21-4 advantage. Zabel began clearing her bench with the team up 10-2, and the reserves played well as the Portsmouth extended its lead. Lauren Campbell came off the bench and was perfect with seven serves while collecting two aces.

"She's a force," Zabel said of Campbell.

Rogers grabbed an early 6-3 lead in the final set before Portsmouth scored 18 of the next 21 points. But the Vikings, with Caralyn Younce going 11-for-11 from the service line, rallied back to within six before the Pats regained their composure and closed it out.

"We want to make sure each game and each week we're getting better as we go along, because that's the ultimate goal," Glancy said. "Our girls are still trying to learn how to work best with each other. We're really just practicing with communicating with each other."

"(Rogers will) get more challenging the next time around," Zabel said. "We're not going to underestimate them the second time around."

While the Vikings work on the basics, the Patriots may be moving on to advanced volleyball. That's the plan and the main goal remains the same.

"We're going to try and run some stuff hopefully — run some plays," Zabel said. "We want to start doing things — not just the base stuff. We want to ramp it up and get into more complex volleyball. The girls definitely want to come back and win our division and go for states. That's our goal. We want to be more solid."
